

Willow Foundation Polo Day 2010

Saturday 5 June 2010

Beaufort Polo Club

The Willow Foundation is delighted to announce the 2010 Charity Polo Day at the prestigious Beaufort Polo Club in Tetbury, Gloucestershire on Saturday 5 June 2010. Guests are invited to join charity founders Bob and Megs Wilson for lunch, tea and the final of one of the UK's most celebrated tournaments, The Arthur Lucas Cup (12-15 goals).

The Willow Foundation Polo Day is the perfect opportunity to enjoy the company of family and friends or entertain corporate guests. Guests will enjoy exclusive use of the pitch side marquee, a champagne reception, lunch and afternoon tea as well as the chance to watch a full days play. Special guests will include charity patrons and friends from the worlds of sport and entertainment.

For those living with a life threatening illness, every day deserves to be treated as precious. Sadly the stress and difficult realities of diagnosis and treatment mean that it's all too easy to forget that life is here to be lived.

The Willow Foundation is a unique charity that organises and funds very special, morale-boosting and memorable days for seriously ill young adults aged 16-40. For some their special day is a last chance to fulfil a dream. For others it provides the opportunity to return some normality back into their lives. But for all a special day provides precious memories for the future.

Your support of the Willow Foundation Polo Day will enable the charity to continue to fulfil more than 100 special days every month for those most in need.

Arthur Lucas was the father of Claire Tomlinson, chairman of Beaufort Polo Club and grandfather of England team regulars, Luke and Mark Tomlinson. An accomplished polo player, and together with Lord Cowdry, Lucas was instrumental in the revival of polo in England after WWII.

Tickets: £95 per person, £900 (tables of ten)
